King Barton Testimonial Dinner Set

E. King Barton, field representative for Assemblyman Clayton Dills for the past 20 years, will be honored at a testimonial dinner Saturday night.

Assemblyman Dills will serve as general chairman of the dinner, and Judge Ralph Dills of Compton will act as master of ceremonies.

Joining the Barton family and friends will be civic and community leaders from Torrance, Hawthorne, Lawndale, Redondo Beach, and Gardena. Among the guests will be Mayor Albert Isen, Hawthorne mayor Raymond Creal, and Francis Hopkins, city manager of Redondo Beach.

Navy Offers Grad Program

The Navy is continuing its high school graduate training program, offering past high school graduates training in electronics, medical, aviation, and nuclear fields.

High school graduates interested in service or careers in the Navy should contact Chief Vendorne E. Isaak, Torrance Navy recruiter, at the Recruiting Station, 1520 Cravens St. The recruiter can be reached by telephone at FA 0-3141.

Homemakers

Given Exams

At North High

Sixty-four senior coeds at North High have taken a written examination on homemaking in the first round of competition for the annual Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award.

Included in the examination were questions on budgeting, food preparation, sewing, child care, and a general essay.

The winner at North High will be announced near the end of the semester. District competition will begin in February.

All churches in the Greater Los Angeles area have been asked by the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the National Safety Council to join in efforts to reduce traffic accidents during the Christmas season. Pastors in hundreds of churches will stress the moral responsibilities of motorists to protect themselves and protect others.
